

Chesapeake Church
SUNDAY MORNING TEACHING SERIES

“My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power, so that your faith might not rest on men’s wisdom, but on God’s power.”
1 Corinthians 2:4-5

Can We Be Honest?

February 14, 2010 – March 21, 2010

Series Overview

Honesty is the best policy – so long as it's the other guy being honest with us! We live in a world of shaded truths and moving absolutes. One would think that the one place honesty would thrive is the church – didn't Jesus say, “I am the way and the truth ...” And yet, how honest do we really get? Why is that? What would it be like if we could be honest with each other? Can we be honest?

WE DON'T TRUST GOD
FEBRUARY 14, 2010

Trusting God, really trusting God is clearly one of the core requirements of true Christians living. Yet, really trusting Him is something we all have a hard time with. As we get honest, let's start at the foundation – do we honestly trust God? And if not, why not?

Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.
(1 Corinthians 15:58)

"You are to be My holy people." (Exodus 22:31)

And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through His own blood. (Hebrews 13:12)

"I am the Lord your God, Who teaches you what is best for you, Who directs you in the way you should go." (Isaiah 48:17)

Come near to God and He will come near to you. (James 4:8)

Come near to God and He will come near to you. (James 4:8)

"Go now and leave your life of sin." (John 8:11)

Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. (Hebrews 4:16)

'Be holy because I, the Lord your God, am holy.' (Leviticus 19:2)

. . . a still small voice. (1 Kings 19:12)

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another. (Hebrews 10:24-26)

In spite of this, you did not trust in the Lord your God, (Deuteronomy 1:32)
